

COURSE AIM

This course provides all port facility personnel with knowledge of security related matters as required in the ISPS (International Ship & Port Facility Security) Code.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Any person working in the port area who needs to be aware of the ISPS Code and its effects on performing their daily tasks and duties.

Course Duration: 1 days

COURSE CONTENT

- Requirements of different security levels
- How to identify weapons, dangerous substances and devices
- Recognition of characteristics and behavioural patterns of persons likely to threaten security
- Techniques used to circumvent security measures
- Information Security
- Security Equipment
- Search Techniques

COURSE INCLUDES

- All course materials
- Copy of presentations on CD-Rom
- Course certificate
- Lunch and refreshments

HOW TO BOOK

MUSC's highly experienced ISPS trainers conduct ISPS Training courses either from MUSC's training headquarters or from any locations worldwide. Please contact enquiries@mandusc.com or call 0207 067 2930 to discuss your ISPS training needs.

Maritime & Underwater Security Consultants Ltd
6 Bell Yard
LONDON
WC2A 2JR

t: +44 (0) 207 067 2930
f: +44 (0) 207 067 2940
e: enquiries@mandusc.com
www.mandusc.com